Class of 1966 Receive Diplomas With Pomp and Circumstance

Graduating with honor are Helen Pippin and Betty Jo Hewett; with high honor Larry Land and Mary Cook, and with honor Zena Stiller. The principal presented each with an appropriate award.

Curiosity mingled with pride characterize this audience at graduation.

Mary Cook delivers her graduation address, "To Each His Own." Castles in the Air" was the subject of Larry Land's discourse.

Reverend C. W. Todd (also a school bus driver) delivered the baccalaureate sermon.

and Tonight Is the Time

New Beta members, who must wait a couple of years to graduate, are Peggy Simmons, Alice Faye Yates, and Wynonia Kendrick.

Jeanette Pipkin sings "You'll Never Walk Alone," accompanied by Mr. Gerald Richardson, glee club director.

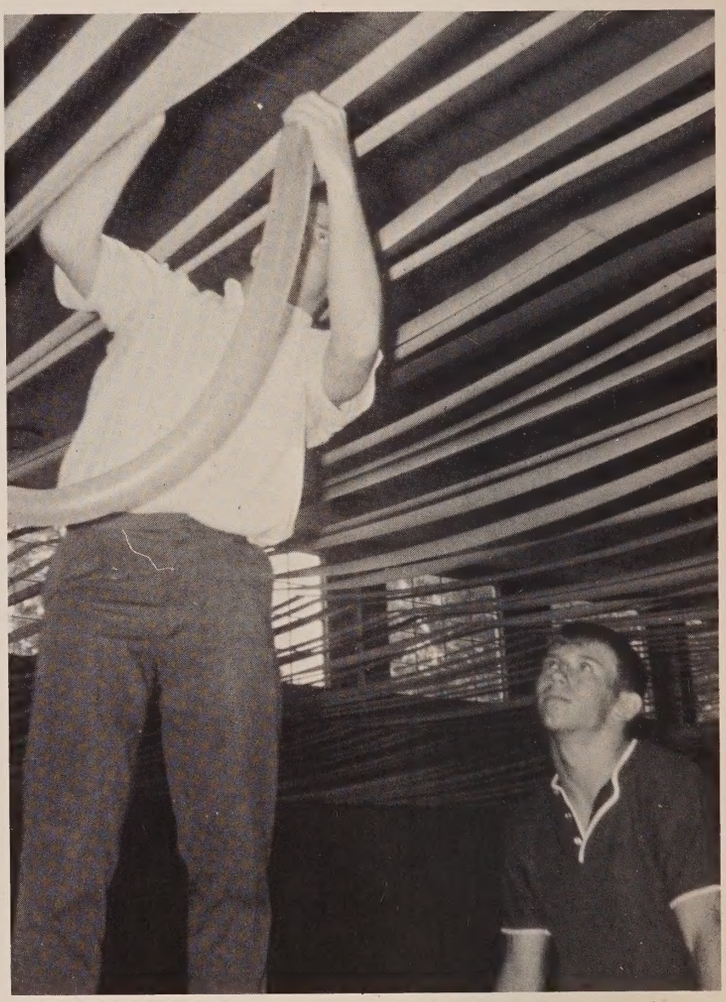
Joyce Bruner, junior, was chosen prom queen by the George Gore Band, who provided music for the evening.



Mike Warren (at right) and pal were loyal juniors who made the gymnasium an idyllic setting.

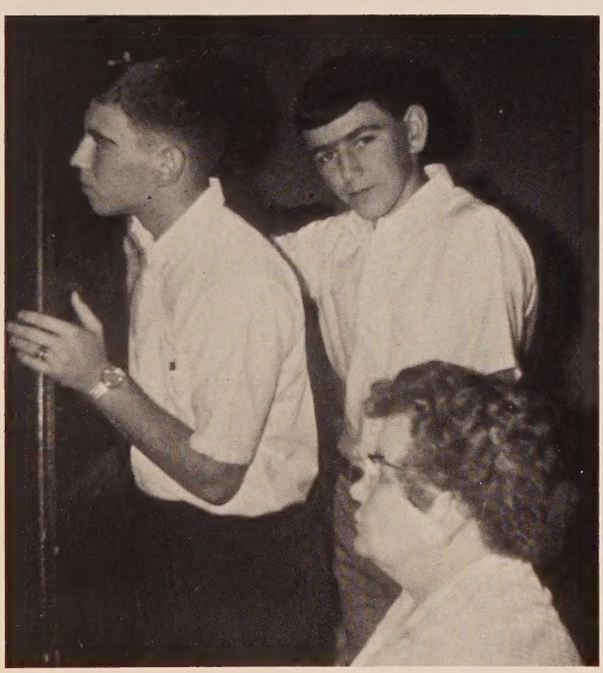
Wanda Pettis (at left) ties balloon decorations for prom, whose theme was "Isle of Golden Dreams."

Annice Ellis and Jerry Brock lead lads and lasses in the Grand March.

Juniors Present Play

Juniors chose for their play a comedy entitled "The Doctor Has a Daughter" written by George Batson. The play is concerned with the adventures and misadventures of Miss Tommy Billings, a small town junior miss who has seen too many movies for her own and everyone else's good. Tommy is lovable but has an overactive imagination and gets just about everyone in hot water. All fall prey to Tommy's schemes to make everyone happy. Tommy has a busy time and a few tears before she emerges triumphant. But all's well that ends well and everyone is forced to agree with Tommy.

Diane Pipkin (Tommy Billings) and Michael Brock (Chuck Hall) practice the play within the Junior Play.

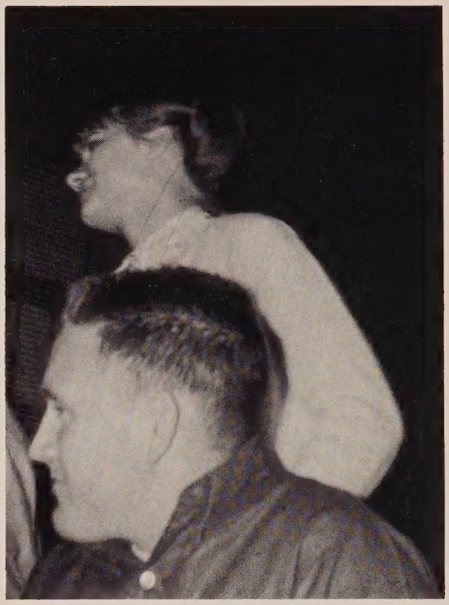


Mike Warren (Ed Smith) and James Holstead (Chuck Hall) nervously wait backstage for their cue while Mrs. Hightower apprehensively tells them to remember their lines.

Mrs. Hightower has no trouble getting the actors to practice this part.

Jacketsville Has Vernon Week

Hillbilly Olene Boyett, attends the sack races and sees Marryin' Sam hitch up two couples on Obsolete Olympus Day.



Senior class beauty, Petunia Lilla Brock, stands to receive applause from admirers during senior high assembly.

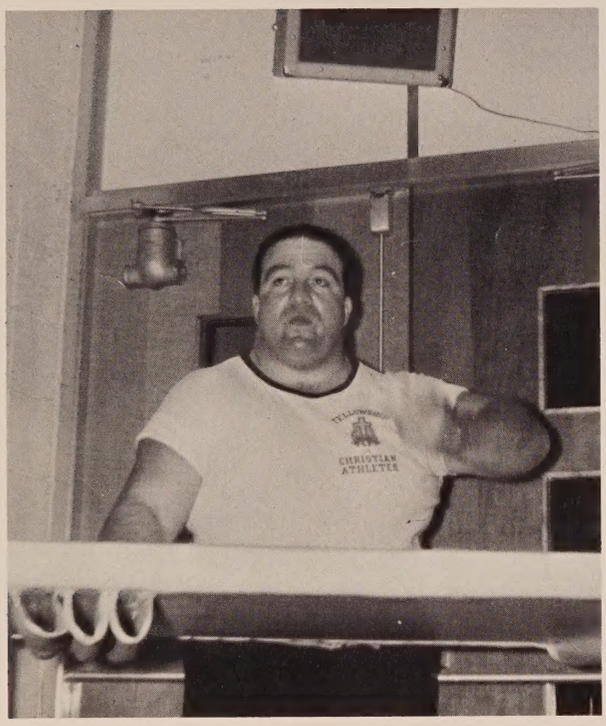
Jeanette Pipkin and Larry Land walk into their homeroom all decked out in their finest on Nice, Neat, and Nutritious Day. Jeanette was especially nice to Larry on this day.

Mr. James Russ, voted most appreciated teacher, has had sixteen years experience. He teaches math.

The election was sponsored by the Future Teachers of America.

Elementary students stand at attention during the flag raising ceremony held on Vim, Vigor, and Vitality Day. At this ceremony Mr. Hutchison gave a speech entitled "Loyalty to the School."

Athletes Host Strongest Man in World and Other Friends



Paul Anderson, strongest man in the world, addresses Athletics Banquet in March.

In a demonstration of strength, Mr. Anderson holds aloft a table upon which eight high school athletes are seated in chairs.

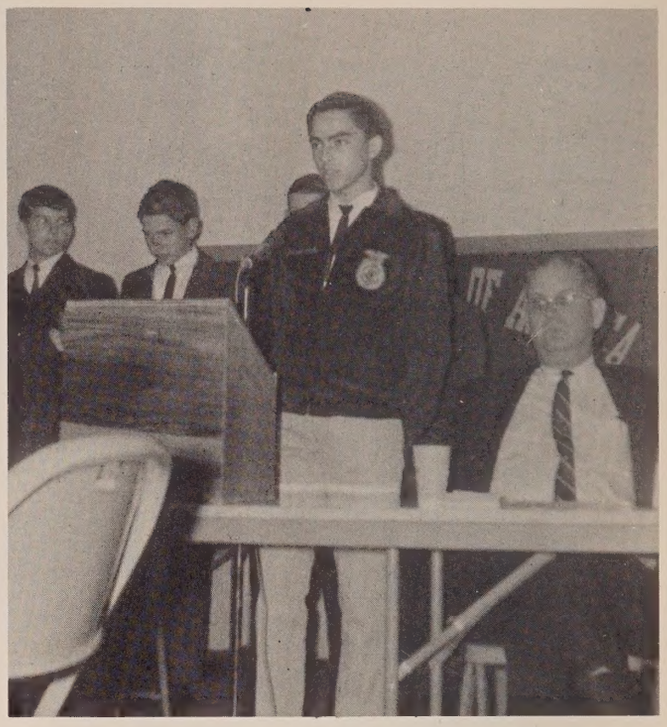
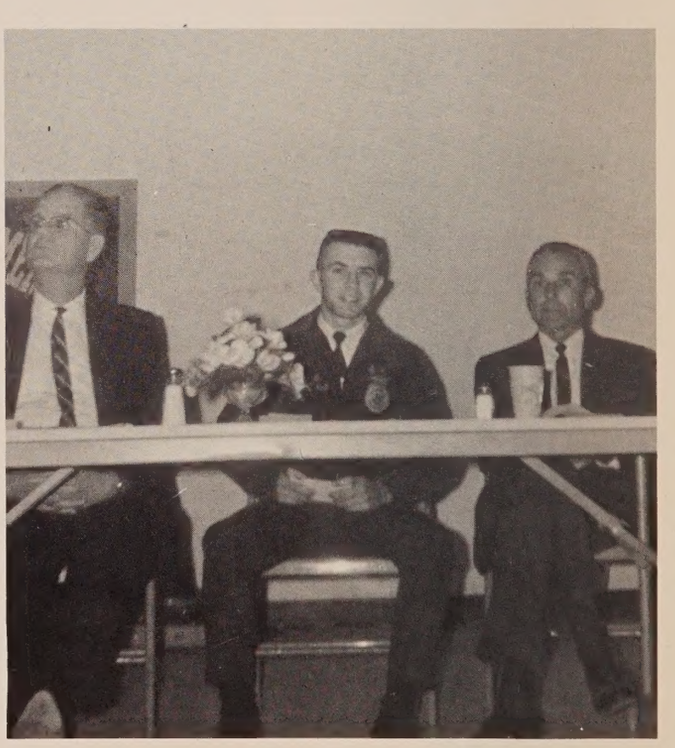
FFA and FHA Give Banquets for Fathers and Mothers



Theron Cook emcees FFA banquet program. Others attending were Jerry Brock, Michael Brock, (standing), and Mr. Hutchison.

Fathers of Future Farmers dine and socialize around banquet table.



Sandwiched between Principal Hutchison and Superintendent Colly V. Williams is Mr. Daniel Bell, state FFA officer from Poplar Springs School, who was guest speaker at FFA Banquet.

Jackie Lee receives Junior Degree from Mary Cook at FHA Banquet.

Vernon High School
Vernon, Florida
Volume 18
Member of Florida Scholastic Press Association

This is the beginning of a book which tries to tell a story. The story is about a group of buildings and a collection of people. Put the buildings and the people together and you have more than just bricks and flesh; you have a spirit that is known as Vernon High School, or rather the Yellow Jacket Spirit.

Because the building and the people are the two main factors which make up our Yellow Jacket territory, our yearbook this year is based on the theme "Buzzing Through Jacketsville."

This book is a presentation of the things a visitor would see if he took a trip through our school; in other words, our everyday life at Vernon.

We hope the story it attempts to tell will never grow cold in your memory.

We, the Seniors of 1966, proudly dedicate our yearbook to
Mr. and Mrs. Bill Kuykendall.

To an outsider, sports mean games and excitement and cheering. But in the students life, sports mean even more than that. They mean long hours of tiresome practice, high hopes, and sometimes the lonely feeling of defeat as well as victory. To other students and to teachers, sports mean watching and working to show the best your school has to offer.

It's the Best 'Jacket Buzz' Ever

To produce the most outstanding JACKET BUZZ ever was the aim of the JACKET BUZZ staff. Through the direction of Mrs. Lottie Dykes, students sought to improve Vernon's yearbook with sharp photos, clever captions, informative copy, interesting layouts, and eye-catching ads. Staff members searched for new ideas in every aspect of VHS life in order to carry out the theme 'Buzzing Through Jacketsville.' The competent and efficient JACKET BUZZ staff has worked many long hours and made tireless efforts. Their greatest reward is the pride of creating a yearbook that is treasured by all.

Linda Cook and Mrs. Dykes prepare for the yearbook ad sales held on September 14. They are looking over the receipt books to make sure there are enough and to see that everyone knows how to fill them out. Peggy Storm, Gayle Calhoun, Larry Land, and Mona Pelfrey plan the yearbook after a successful trip to the Florida Scholastic Press Association District meeting, where they got many valuable ideas.

The Beta Club is an organization of honor students who are responsible for promoting the ideals of honesty, service, and leadership. The Beta Club motto is Dicamus aliis serviendo - "Let us lead by serving others." Members of the Beta Club are selected by unanimous consent of the Club and three-fourths majority vote of the high school faculty members who are acquainted with the student. Students in grades 10, 11, and 12, who have maintained at least a B-average scholastically and who possess good moral character are invited to membership. Students finishing grades 7-9 with an A-average are also invited. Several service projects of Beta Club were as follows: clean trophy case, Red Cross Drive, flag raising ceremony, sponsor yearbook, visit nursing home, and give graduates a party.

Members and officers of the Beta Club are Michael Brock, projects chairman; Gloria Armstrong; Betty Hewett, program chairman; Mary Cook, president; Zena Stiller, vice president; Delores Cook, publicity chairman; Helen Pippin, secretary-treasurer; David Everitt, parliamentarian.

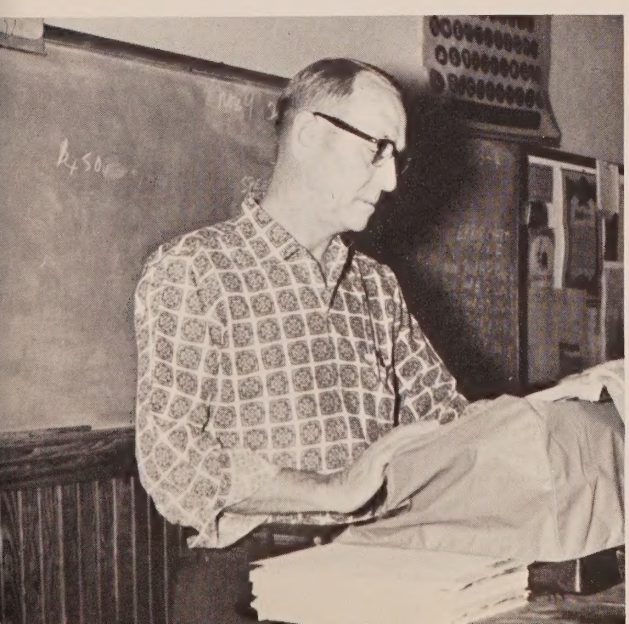
Mr. Irving Roche is the advisor to the paper staff.



Helen Pippin, feature editor, is writing a feature article.

Editor-in-chief of the "Jackets' Sting," Mary Cook, is typing a stencil.

The Student Council Acts as a Service Club

The Student Council is an organization that strives to develop a better understanding of the ideals of democracy through active participation in the activities of the school. The Student Council brings to the attention of the faculty the viewpoint of the student body concerning policy and activities, but has no control over school policy or discipline of students.

Officers of the Student Council are Larry Land, president; Ozeal Burch, vice-president; Linda Faye Cook, secretary-treasurer.

Mrs. Jerrie Wince and Mr. James Russ are advisors to the Student Council.

Dawn McDonald, Le Grand Hutchison, Linzey Marshall and Jannice Ellis are younger members of the Vagabonds. They are dancing to records at the Vagabonds Christmas Party on December 14.

Vagabonds have been real busy this year. They have helped with the Miss Vernon Contest and the Halloween Carnival. The Vagabonds are divided into four groups. They are the Singing Group, headed by Jeanette Pipkin; the Dancing Group, led by Cletie Morrell, the Acting Group, captained by Mary Cook; and the Make-up Group, led by Dana Brock.

There is a place for each and every person in the Vagabonds-on the front of the stage, the left of the stage, the back of the stage - dancing, singing, acting, applying make-up or a combination of the four.

Linda Sue Cook, senior, is vice president of the Vagabonds. It is her duty to get up a program for the Vagabonds meetings. She also assists with other programs sponsored by the Vagabonds. She has been a member of the Vagabonds for four years.

Larry Peacock, Mona Pelfrey, Melanie Russ, and David Everitt dance to the Tennessee Waltz. They seem to be enjoying the Vagabonds Party tremendously.

Each of these greenhands was presented with a Greenhand Certificate and a bronze FFA pin.

FFA Activities

The Vernon FFA Chapter has been carrying out various activities since the beginning of school. The chapter competed in the General Farm Judging contest at the North Florida Fair in Tallahassee. They judged oats, corn, silage, hay, hogs, dairy cattle, and beef cattle.

In October they initiated their new Greenhand farmers, and in November, their Chapter Farmers. In December they had a weiner roast to which FHA members were invited. The second Monday in January, they had an oyster supper and invited their fathers. They sent three boys to the State Fair in Tampa in February to judge cattle and hogs. In March they held their Father-Son Banquet. Last year they were the top chapter in District I and were rated a superior chapter. They are working to hold or better that rating. Tommy Cook, Donald Cook, and Hayward Brock are candidates for the American Farmer Degree, the nation's highest FFA honor.

Mr. Irving Roche Jr. teaches vocational agriculture and is advisor to the FFA.

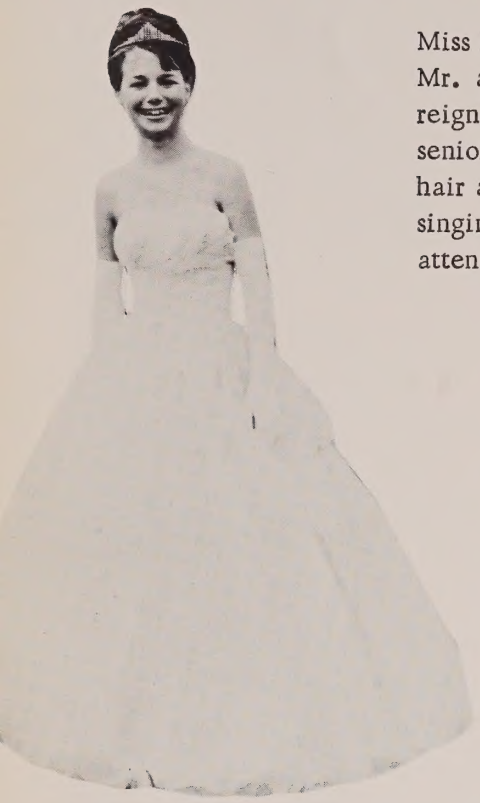
Winner of Miss Vernon Contest Represents Vernon in National Peanut Festival



Miss Jeanette Pipkin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Pipkin, is the reigning Miss Vernon. She is a senior, 17 years old, has brown hair and green eyes. She enjoys singing and acting. She plans to attend Pensacola Business College.

Mrs. Lillian Hightower, director of the Miss Vernon contest, gives Nancy Kent, a contestant, her number.

Senorita JoAnn McWilliams entrances Gringo Michael Brock in a skit of old Mexico. They are part of the entertainment during the contest.

Contestants for the Miss Vernon title are, Nancy Kent, Patricia Sapp, Jeanette Pipkin, Diane Finch, Neta Crawford, and Cheryl Weaver.

The Notables: Mary Cook, Rhonda Dalton, Olivia Hammock, Linda Faye Cook, Linda Sue Cook, sing "Harbor Lights" and "The Cruel "War."

Miss Linda Newsom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Griffin Newsom, is the 1965 Little Miss Vernon. She is in the second grade. Her hair is blonde, her eyes blue.

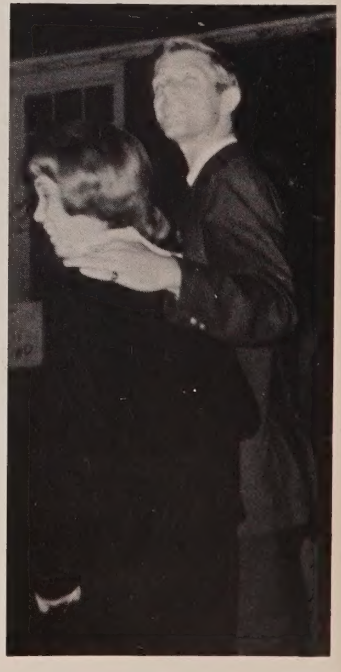
Connie Haskins, 1964 Little Miss Vernon, places the crown on Linda Newsom, the new queen. Standing next to her are Rhonda McDonald, 1st runner-up, and Dena Waller, 2nd runner-up.

L. C. Parrish, James Holstead, and Jimmy Gilmore sing "Traveling Man" during the Halloween program.

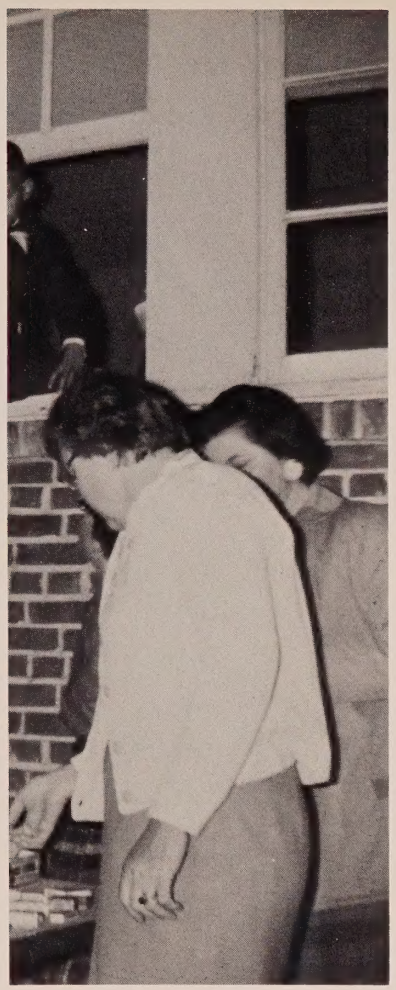
Mr. Irving Roche slips out of his teaching clothes and dons those of a peanut vendor at Halloween time.

Halloween Leaves Its

Mrs. Pauline Sapp and Mrs. Pettis operate a concession stand at the carnival.



Larry and Glenda make the rounds to see what kind of entertainment they can dig up.



Mrs. Simmons and Mrs. Whitaker run the penny throw booth for the PTA.

An excellent crowd plus ideal weather, contributed to the overall success of the annual Halloween Carnival held Tuesday, October 26.

Figures released by Mr. Hutchison indicate the school made $925. The school was in charge of the queen's money and the Halloween program. The school puts this money to good use by financing such things as office supplies, postage stamps, film rental, first aid material, instructional supplies, play ground equipment, parts and services for equipment and machinery repair services.

Dana Brock, dressed as a river boat captain, is the Master of Ceremonies for the Halloween program.

Effect on Jacketsville

Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Howell sell hotdogs to Lana Brock and Mrs. Worthington.

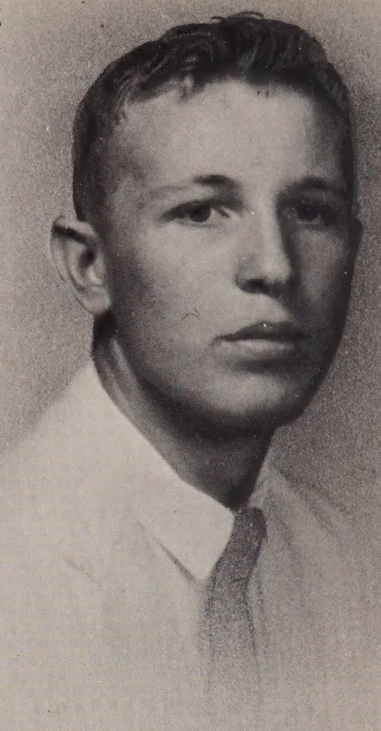
For two years, the PTA has also been a part of the Halloween Carnival. The PTA sponsored the Halloween booths and made approximately $187.

This organization also puts its money to good use. They buy first aid room material, pay for the first aid room laundry, buy elementary P. E. equipment. They give money to the Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Boys' State, and the music department of the school.

Kedric Smothers, dressed as a card sharp also acts as Master of Ceremonies for the program.

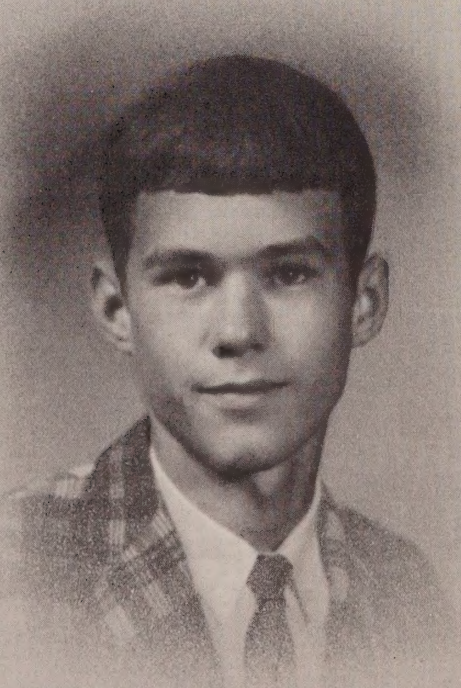
Ninth and Tenth Grade Queens Crowned

Nell Owens, of Mr. Simmons' homeroom, was crowned Queen of Senior High.



King, David Armstrong, had the honor of placing the crown on the head of Queen Nell.

Responsible for the excellent entertainment during the Halloween Program were Mrs. C. E. Hightower, Mrs. Sam Mitchell, Mrs. Clyde Parish, Mrs. A. C. Hutchison, Mrs. Loretta Bush, Mrs. Margaret Sleezer, Mrs. Nellwyn Bailey, Mr. Jim Rogers, Mr. G. A. Richardson, and Mrs. Alex Sapp. Those who performed on the program were members of the Vagabonds and the elementary. There was lots of good eats and excellent entertainment; in other words, another fine Halloween Carnival.



Ray Robinson is distinguished among his classmates by having the honor of crowning the Queen of Junior High.

Queen of Junior High is Donna Sue Brock, of Mrs. Wince's homeroom.

Halfback Mike Warren sneaks past would-be Hornet tackles and sprints for another six points.

Friday evening, November 5, Vernon High School held its annual Homecoming. This was one of the biggest and most outstanding events of the year sponsored by the Student Council. This Homecoming was a dress-up affair, and everyone wore orange chrysanthemum corsages to aid the development of this proposed atmosphere.

Included in the Homecoming schedule was the stingaree held Thursday night, November 4, at the football field and sponsored by the cheerleaders.

Also on the Homecoming schedule was a parade of floats based on the theme "Football" through downtown Vernon on Friday afternoon, November 5.

Avid Jacket fans hurry to get drinks to ease their aching throats before the halftime show starts.

Darting around determined Cottondale tacklers, quarterback James Holstead races for the goal line and another touchdown for Vernon.

Homecoming Proves to Be Biggest Yet

The sixth grade won a prize of $6 for this float in the Elementary Float Division. The float, as shown here, has just been completed by a group of industrious workers.

Winner of the High School Float Division is Mr. Ward's eighth grade homeroom. The float is parading downtown mainstreet of Vernon predicting that the Jacket Powderpuffs, the "girl's football team, could beat the Cottondale Hornets by a score of 49-0. This float also won a prize of $6.

We Have a Band!

Mr. Gerald Richardson, our new band director, has worked hard to organize and build our band. After much hard and strenuous work, the band was finally ready. They led the Homecoming Parade down the main street of Vernon.

Members of the band are (bottom row) Jerry Strickland, Baritone, Gary Dobbs, Bass Clarinet; Debra Cannon, Clarinet; Gregory Owens, Clarinet; Barbara McGarigle, Clarinet; (second row) Andy Harrison, Tuba; Dwight Brock, Trumpet; Ann Black, Trumpet; JoAnn McWilliams, Clarinet; Carolyn Mercer, Clarinet; (top row) Larry Justice, Bass Drum; Gary Hutchison, Snare Drum; Lindsey Marshall, Snare Drum; Scotty Padgett, Snare Drum; Barbara Strickland, Gail McAdams, Donna Coatney, Olene Boyett.

Olivia Hammock, 1964 Homecoming Queen, places the crown on the new queen's head while her sponsor proudly admires both queens.

Christmas Week

Margaret Sheffield, Jeanette Pipkin, and Mr. Roche decorated the annual senior Christmas tree in preparation for a whopping senior party.

The week of December 13-17 was known as Christmas week. Everyone was in a frenzy of excitement and had a funny feeling of expectation in their stomachs. In the early part of the week, or in the previous week, homerooms met to draw names. This produced an air of mystery in the halls of Vernon. Students slipped around and tried to find out what he or she had.

All the rooms were also decorated during this week. The homerooms found a Christmas tree, brought it to school, and then begged and borrowed (but not stole) to get ornaments and decorations to go on it. Finally by Friday morning, the tree was ready (and so were the students).

Friday at eleven-thirty all the homerooms had a Christmas party in order to wish their classmates a Merry Christmas. And then at twelve o'clock, everyone headed for his bus with a warm feeling in his heart.

Members of the Senior High Glee Club perform at the Christmas Concert on Thursday evening, December 16. They are singing "O Holy Night". They also sang "O, Come All Ye Children", "Gesu Bambino", and many others.

The Vernon High School Band also entertained at the concert. They played "Yuletide Sketches", "Jingle Bells", "Jolly Old St. Nicholas", and "O Come, All Ye Faithful." They were assisted by the Junior Band.

Brings Joy

Helen Pippin, Linda Cook, Betty Hewett, Gloria Armstrong, Michael Brock, and Delores Cook sing Christmas carols to not-so-young friends at the Kolmentz Rest Home. This trip was sponsored by the Beta Club and Yearbook Staff. These two organizations, with the true spirit of Christmas, also carried a fruit basket to the rest home.

Seventh and eighth graders admire this beautiful creche in Mr. Ward's homeroom. This nativity scene is just one of the many decorations that appear in his homeroom and many other rooms up and down the hall every year at Christmas time.

Barbara Whitaker, Janice Lee, Shirlana Folmar, Sheila Chesnut, Linda Baker, and Sandra Armstrong, FHA members, are annual guests to the FFA weiner roast. The girls are delightfully entertained by the greenhands and chapter farmers. After an evening of fun and frolic, they are treated with hotdogs and cold drinks.
